Facilitator

Beverley Anderson, RSW, MSW (1997) has been working in In and Outpatient Mental Health settings for 19 years. Since her move to BC 10 years ago she has worked with pregnant and post-partum mothers experiencing depression and anxiety.

As a mother, Beverley was inspired to learn more about the skills of being a kind, compassionate, and capable parent and recently completed the Certified Parenting Facilitation course at the Alfred Adler Institute. Beverley works part-time at a Mental Health agency and has a private practice.

She lives with her wife and their two children in Vancouver and is excited to encourage and empower parents to be the best that they can be!
