Facilitator

Marion Gargiulo, MC, RCC, CPF

Marion is a Registered Clinical Counsellor working as a school counsellor for the North Vancouver School District, and a Certified Parenting Facilitator. Since 1990, she has worked with children, youth, and parents. Marion believes parents do the best they can, given their current insight and skills. As a parent of two young adults, and the youngest of four siblings, Marion easily connects with fellow parents, offering lots of encouragement and is non-judgmental for those wanting a change. Her focus is on developing healthy interactional patterns that foster caring and resilient children.
